Indiana State Teachers Association

JD MILLER YOUNG ACTIVIST AWARD

The purpose of this award is to recognize, reward and promote Association activism of members within their first five years as education employees. The ISTA Executive Committee shall annually recommend the recipient to the ISTA Board of Directors:

A nomination may be self-declared or submitted by another active ISTA member and must include the endorsement of at least one additional active member.

A nomination application must detail the nominee's activism in relationship to one or more of the ISTA Strategic Goals and involvement at local, state or national levels.

The award winner will be recognized at the Representative Assembly.

The winner will be funded to attend one state level leadership event, as approved by the Executive Committee.
